GAMES PLAYED SATURDAY, APRIL 22

MEMPHIS AT LITTLE ROCK, APRIL 22.—In the tenth inning, with one out, Hemingway on first base as the result of a base on balls, set out to commit larceny. Rumler made a perfect peg to Starr at second and the home manager was handcuffed and Hemingway was safe. Knisely injected a delayed hit into the game with a slashing single to left field and Hemingway hotfooted home with the run that proved to be a winner for Memphis. Score:

MOBILE AT BIRMINGHAM, APRIL 22.—Derrick's single to left field, which McDowell let roll past him with the bases full in the fourth inning, gave Birmingham three runs, enough to defeat Mobile for the fourth straight time. The game was the best played during the series. Four fast double plays killed all of Mobile's attempted rallies. Score:

NEW ORLEANS AT ATLANTA, APRIL 22.—By bunching hits in the sixth, seventh and eighth innings, New Orleans won from Atlanta and evened up the series. Long drives featured the contest, Lennox, for Atlanta, and Allison and Stansbury, for New Orleans, smashing out triples. Although the local team made as many hits—ten—as the visitors, they were unable to get more than two runs. Score:

CHATTANOOGA AT NASHVILLE, APRIL 23.—Andreen was the only Chattanooga player able to connect safely with Rogers' delivery and Nashville had no trouble winning. Not a visiting runner reached third base. Marshall was wild in the sixth and seventh innings, and bunched hits and poorly handled bunts enabled the locals to score five runs in the two innings.
